When you invest your money in a company whose directors are old established business men. They know the ins and outs, and experience has taught them a great deal. It's just as easy and cheap to get stock in that class company as it is to buy into a company whose directors are men of untried quality.

When you put your money and faith into the keeping of such men as Chas. F. Wenneker, who is the President and General Manager of the Wenneker-Morris Candy Co.: Dr. Heine Marks, one of our most reputable and capable surgeons and physicians; Chas. L. Rucker, who holds the responsible position of Inspector of the New York Life Ins. Co.; Geo. H. Lucas, who is General Agent in St. Louis for the New York Life; Robert Meyer, who is President and General Manager of the Meyer Bros. Coffee and Spice Co., and B. O. Davidson, than whom there is no more prominent attorney in our city-when you put your money in the hands of such thoroughly capable men as these, that make up the directory of the

St. Louis-Spindle Top Heights Oil Co.,

There is no chance left for you to take. It is an assured fact that with such an array of brainy men on the Board of Directors all chance is eliminated, and it is only a question of time until all stockholders will be getting dividends monthly. It's good to have stock in any company that looks like it has a chance to succeed, but far better to be in a company that you know is absolutely square, and will give all stockholders a good deal.

If you are looking for a chance to make some big money on an investment of a few hundred dollars, you cannot do better than investigate this opportunity.

SUMMARY OF ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

Wheat and corn eased off and closed lower yesterday, after opening strong and advancing above Monday's prices. Though the Government crop report on reserves in farmers' hands was regarded as beartsh on wheat, there was a decidedly bullish tone to much of the early news. The drought was still unbroken and there was a good cash demand. Foreign markets were steady, with a fair export inquiry and a good run of orders from millers.

by scalpers. Later news came from several portions of the Southwest that rain had fallen, and there was a sharp break, which carried prices below Monday's close. Receipts were light, locally, but there was a fairly good movement to other primary points. Corn was strong at the opening on the decrease in the farm reserves. When wheat broke considerable profit-taking followed. Oats was the only strong spot,

The news conveyed by the Government crop report issued Monday afternoon had been anticipated by many speculators, and its effect on the future market was not so pronounced as had been CEANBERRIES-BLOWS per bbl. $2.5082.75 expected. Early bull trading in corn was not well supported by outsiders, and the cash demand dropped off considerably after the first hour. On its face the Government report, showing farmers' reserves of only 60,000,000 bu., was decidedly favorable to the buying side, but offerings were free toward the end of the session.
